

Pocket Your Dollars!

Join us for two exciting evenings of money saving tips! Register for both classes and save $4.00! Carrie Rocha is coming to Osceola for two presentations full of money saving tips. Her passion is seeing people keep their money where it belongs – in their pocket. In June 2006 Carrie and her husband successfully made a commitment to get out of $50,000.00 of debt. That meant paying off all current debts and paying cash for everything moving forward. It included student loan debt, a car loan, tax debt, and more. Recognizing the need to have discretionary income to pay off the existing debt and save for future purchases. Two ways they could do it - increase income or decrease expenses. They opted to start by decreasing expenses. Who wants to work more hours in the day if they don't have to?

Carrie is wife, a mother of two girls, an active volunteer in her church, and the author of the blog site www.pocketyourdollars.com. She believes 'If I have time to save money, then you do too'. ## How to Get Out and Stay Out: Say Good-Bye to Debt Forever

April 20 (T)

7p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

OIS Media Room

Cost: $12.00 (or $10.00 with registration for May 4)

Carrie Rocha presents the principles she and her family applied to get out of $50,000 in debt in less than three years. Like any lasting change it started on the inside with an attitude change toward money. Then she and her husband got organized in their finances with a spending plan and money management system. Finally, they reduced expenses in a million creative ways to leverage extra cash without a second job. Registration deadline: April 12.

You will learn:

- Five attitudes that keep you broke
- How-to create a spending plan that works
- Common financial temptations and how to outsmart them
- How to put the debt snowball to work for you
- How to save 50% on your groceries without a coupon file box

Save 50% on Your Groceries without a Coupon File Box

May 4 (T)

7p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

OIS Media Room

Cost: $12.00 (or $10.00 with registration for April 20)

As a tool for getting out of debt, Carrie Rocha learned how to cut her grocery bill in half without clipping and filing coupons every week. Registration deadline: April 12.

You will learn:

- The four types of grocery shoppers and how each one can save money
- The best time of year and of month to buy groceries for less
- A system for using coupons that doesn't require a coupon file box
